RE: Direct Seller Application Denial

City Council:

This letter is in response to my denial for a direct sellers permit due to my pending charges. As these charges are simply allegations, I have no criminal convictions, which would lead to show there is no evidence that I pose any threat to any community members, potential customers, or entities nor pose any risk to their property. I am looking to further myself financially and to provide services to those in need of them here in the Antigo area. These services will include gutter cleaning, leaf raking, and snow removal, none of which require any entrance into these client's homes, nor provides any opportunity to have access to their property. I will be using my own resources to provide these services. Under the provisions of Secs. 68.07 through 68.16, Wisconsin Statutes, this letter serves formally as my appeal to the previous determination made by the Antigo Police Chief, and serves also as a formal request to receive my Direct Sellers Permit with waiver of the 10 day waiting period which has already been served out.

Sincerely,

Donavon Rogers
